CROWD JEERS AT DECISION.

A CLOSE FINISH. Talent at New Orleans Goes Through Another Day Without Picking a Winner-Showman Wins at 30 to 1-Texas

Brigade Land a Good Thing in Bummer NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22. Another unrace on the card. There was a head finish between Nitrate and Hargis, and it looked placed Hargis first. There was a howl from the crowd in the grand stand at the placing of the horses and when the numbers were hoisted up they were greeted with jeers.

To-day was the best day of the week from a weather standpoint. It was very warm and top coats were out of place. The track had improved greatly, which accounted mainly for a better class of horses being out. It was the same old story for the talent, as not a favorite managed to win. For the past two days not a favorite has won. This is the record for first choices being beaten here this winter. The stewards were not a bit impressed with the ride that Alfred C. repressed with the ride that Alfred C. re-ceived at the hands of Winkfield, and de-cided to refuse cided to refuse the entry of the horse and restrict the mounts of Jockey Winkfield to the horses of his employer, E. Corrigan.

Frank Rice was a heavily backed favorite in the opening race, but he failed to show in the opening race, but he failed to show any speed. The race was won by the extreme outsider, Showman, who was as good as 50 to 1 at one time in the betting.

El Ray in the second, at 8 to 1, was returned the winner, getting home a length and a half in front of Peat. Alfred C, the favorite, was never in the hunt, and finished away back was never in the back.

The "White Hat Brigade" from Texas pulled off one of its coups in the third with Rummer. Bummer opened up at 6 to 1, but was played down to 3 to 1 in the local ring and also heavily backed in Hot Springs, New York, St. Louis and Texas poolrooms. He won galloping by two lengths from Optional.

He won galloping by two lengths from Optional.

The fifth race resulted in one of the pretiest finishes of the day. Wealth and Federal were the ones that fought it out. They hooked up at the seventy-yard pole and ran head and head together. Federal managed to get the verdict by a nose on the post. Carat took down the purse in the closing event. Frank M., the favorite, was second.

LATE ARRIVALS AT THE SHOW.

NOVEL FEATURES FOUND ON SOME OF THE NEW AUTOMOBILES.

A Yankee Car That Makes Change of Speed by Compressed Air and Carries Water Around Its Body-Big Sales Reported American Motor League Meeting.

New York's automobile appetite evidently "grows with what it feeds upon." The at-tendance at the show in Madison Square Saratoga Handicap, $12,000 guaranteed; Garden increased Wednesday night, yester-day afternoon saw the largest daylight crowd and last night the crush in the aisles was greater than ever.

A certain proportion of the attendance consists of repeaters, persons who are present every day trying to examine all that is offered before selecting any type. Sales have been enormous and exhibitors are wishing the show could continue for two weeks. It would require fully that time for novice purchasers to study all and then decide. One concern that makes a runabout has called a halt on sales to agents. It can turn out only 1,700 cars and 1,500 have been con-tracted for, a big department store in this city having taken 20). Another maker of runabouts says that 1/0 of his machines have been placed. It is peculiar to note that very few of those who won the 100 per cent. certificates in the recent reliability contest to Boston and back are making capital of the fact. At one stand, though, two glass cases full of cups and medals won by locomobiles in various contests are displayed. Twenty-five cups and eighteen medals comprise the trophy list.
Only a couple of the seventeen cars that tied for the Shattuck cup display the fact.

A great many of the buyers of big gasolene cars are persons who have used runabouts for a year or two. There is little doubt that the unexpected development of the American car has caused a reaction to begin. Persons do not appear to be so insistent about paying big prices for imported cars. They they can do in domestic makes

There have been a dozen new vehicles added since Tuesday, and among them are some that show decidedly novel features. One heavy runabout has planetary gearing and the speed changes are made by com-pressed air on a principle similar to that of an air brake. The engine and gears are entirely inclosed by a metal and wood house built below the body of the car. The car comes from Boston, and a regular Yankee idea was revealed when the maker was asked the water was kept in a compartment runthe water was kept in a compartment running all about the body. The space was there and he used it.

One of the newcomers is a car built at Youngstown, Ohio a highly-developed product with mechanically operated valves, honeycomb radiator and all the latest French airs. It proved to be the highest-priced car in the show, $5,000, and also the one having more horse power, 28, than any other American-make car present. make car present.

Still another novelty is a car driven by a series of three spur gears, one on the motor shaft, an intermediate, and one on the driving

New Orleans, Jan. 22.—Through A. Osulois, turf editor of Le Sports of Paris, France, Charles "Boots" Durnell, who was ruled off the turf for life by the French Jockey Club for being left at the post in a race in Paris, was informed to-day that he would be restored to all privileges and would also receive a license to ride and train horses. Mr. Coulois bore a letter to the effect that Durnell would be reinstated to all privileges and that the French Jockey Club would gladly accept his entry of any horse and would permit him to ride.

Durnell, after the letter had been transfaled to him, was all smiles, and remarked: "Now I will have a chance to race in New York, and also show that my horse McChesney is folly; wenty pounds better than Hermis."

A novelty in horns fresh from Paris, is shown in the gallery. It is a big affair that makes noise enough for a tugboat and the feature of it is a covering of soft sheet rubber stretched over the mouth to keep the dust out of the reed. This rubber distends slightly when the horn is blown and does not injure the tone. Ordinarily wire gauze is used as a dust screen.

The annual meeting of the American Motor League was held yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Garden. Isaac B. Potter of New York, former president of the League of American Wheelmen, was elected president. The other officers were reclected as follows: Charles E. Duryea, Reading, Pa. first vice-president: W. The reports of the various officers were submitted and plans were matured to extend the usefulness of the league.

to Meet American League. (INCINNATI, Jan. 22.-When the meeting of the National League adjourned, at about 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, it was with every one of the magnates standing and singing that popular song, "In the Good Old Summer Time," in accordance with a suggestion from Paradeat Harvager These was but one President Herrmann. There was but one absentee, and he was John T. Brush. He left the room just as soon as the song was suggested, because he was in a hurry to catch train for Indianapolls.

There can be no doubt that the National League is a sounder organization to-day then it has been for many years. The ratification of the peace compact, it is considered, increases the value of every share of stock owned in the clubs of the organization. Furthermore, the League has been placed on a different foundation from that which it formerly occupied. It is not likely that there will be any more breaches in the organization. It stands as a unit now, as the club owners have been forced to realize that their interests are mutual.

The ratification of the compact was the great victory for the anti-Brush faction of the League. There can be no doubt about that. It was the first time in the career of the Indianapolis man that he has been com pletely squelched in a baseball meeting. The victors assert that there will be no facions in the future. Persident Herrmann in speaking of Brush and the Brooklyn club owners said: "I want to say that the con-tentions of the New York and Brooklyn clubs tentions of the New York and Brooklyn clubs were absolutely fair."

"If I had not been on the committee and had not been as familiar with the conditions which existed between the two committes at the conference I wouldhave pursued the same plan they did. Their course was absolutely a fair one and it is to the credit of these two clubs that they voted to ratify the agreement after all the details had been explained to them."

clubs that they voted to railry the agreement of them."

The business transacted to-day was not of much importance. The first thing done was to appoint Dreyfuss, Hart and Ebbets as the schedule committee to confer with a like committee of the American League for the purpose of arranging a non-conflicting schedule, with an interchange of games. Then a rules committee was appointed, consisting of Hart, Hanlon and Max Fleischmann. This committee, too, will confer with a similar committee, too, will confer with a similar committee from the American League and make the rules uniform.

The board of directors held a meeting and fixed the salary of President Pulliam. The amount was not given out, but it is known to be about $6,000 a year, the same as was paid Uncle Nick Young while he was president. The meeting then adjourned subject to the call from the president.

While great credit for the establishing of peace between the two leagues is due President Herrman and the members of his committee, there is no doubt that had it not been for Frank De Haus Robinson of Cleveland the two organizations would still be at war. It was just about the time that the National League meeting was to be adjourned in New York last month that President Robison arose and addressed the magnates. He said that their policy of continuing the war was folly and that an effort should at least be made to determine whether or not peace could be established with the American League. This started a discussion and the result was the appointment of the committee which waited on the American League delegates.

Veteran Ten Eyek to Coach Syracus Oarsmen.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 22 .- James A. Ten Eyek of Worcester, Mass., the veteran profes-sional oarsman, was chosen to-day by the Athletic Governing Board of Syracuse University to coach the crews during the coming season. He succeeds E. R. Sweetland, who has coached at Syracuse since 1899. Ten has coached at Syracuse since 1899. Ten Eyck has been at the Annapolis Naval Academy since 1900 and has coached a number of college crews. He will enter upon his duties immediately and a call will be issued to the men. The turning down of Sweetland is a great surprise, as he has coached the football team as well as the crews. The trouble was over the price for his services. The board will institute graduate coaching for the football and track men. Most of the students were in favor of retaining Sweetland at any price, as he has done a great deal for the university in the athletic line.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MEN HAPPY. TWO FIGHTS END IN DEATH.

YOUNG NEW YORK BOY SUCCUMBS IN PROVIDENCE.

Seconds of Eugene McCarthy Had Thrown Up the Sponge When Hugh Murphy Struck Fatal Blow-Thomas McGee the Victim of Ring Contest in Helena.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 22.-Eugene McCarthy, 18 years old, a pupil of the New York High School, is dead from the effects of a blow received in a fight. McCarthy was to have met Marty McCue, also of New York in a twenty-round fight before the Scituate Athletic Club last night. McCue could not appear, owing to a death in his family, and Hugh Murphy of New York was picked to fill his place. The fight progressed to the fifteenth round, in which McCarthy became so groggy that he was a sponge, or attempted to do so. Instead, the sponge was thrown low and neither the referee nor Murphy's seconds saw it.

At the same time Murphy delivered a right swing on McCarthy's jaw. McCarthy went down with terrific force, the back of his head striking solidly on the floor. He was picked up unconscious and a local physician was sent for. All attempts to revive the boy were futile. He was taken to a hotel in the village and a physician was summoned from this city. The opinion of the physician is that he sustained a concussion of the brain.

McCarthy died soon after 9 o'clock this morning. Gen. Hunter C. White. Sheriff of Providence county, has under arrest John R. Robinson, recently of Worcester, who acted as manager for the Scituate Athletic. R. Robinson, recently of Worcester, who acted as manager for the Scituate Athletic Club; John J. Mack, manager for hugh Murphy, who knocked out McCarthy, and Murphy himself. They will be charged with manslaughter.
